BEYBLADE X WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP 2025 · TOKYO

SubTG

RED° Tokyo Tower · October 11-12, 2025 · Regular and Open classes

15,000
bladers in the qualifiers, approx.

21
qualifying cities

33
finalists in Tokyo

190,000
livestream views, approx.

WHAT A FINISH IS WORTH

Points for each type of win under the Beyblade X rules

Fahreddin wins the Open final with a Burst, a Spin and an Xtreme Finish.

PODIUMS

| Pos. | Blader | Class | Qualifier |
|---|---|---|---|
| 1 | Leobardo | Regular | Mexico City |
| 2 | Balya | Regular | Jakarta |
| 3 | Berguiny | Regular | Paris |
| 1 | Fahreddin | Open | Istanbul |
| 2 | Kyle | Open | Hong Kong |
| 3 | Omanjyu King | Open | Tokyo |

Third-place matches: Berguiny beats Jung U K. (Seoul), Omanjyu King beats Ha Jun Y. (Seoul).

TRIVIA

· At the start of the qualifiers, bladers aged 6 to 67; in Tokyo, 19 Regular finalists and 14 Open.
· Minato (Tokyo) finishes in the top eight of the Regular class.
· Combos not published by TOMY: for Leobardo, a retailer's blog lists Aero Pegasus 7-60 and Wizard Rod 1-60 Hexa.
· In 2026 the World Championship becomes the BEYBLADE X GP, with the final in Bangkok on December 12-13.

Sources: TOMY press release (kyodonewsprwire.jp/release/202510126962) for results, numbers and finals; Beyblade X rulebook for the points; combos from the malloftoys.com blog, unofficial; 2026 GP from beyblade.com/gpfinal2026.